2013 ROCKPILE Zinfandel Pritchett Peaks Vineyard

92 Points

Two Puffs

“Very deep, solidly fruited Zinfandel, this bottling sports the mix of power and clear berryish focus that has lifted the Rockpile AVA into the top of the varietal rankings. Not surprisingly, the wine is full in body, has its fair share of muscles and yet is not coarse or overly heavy. Suggestions of dry spices and creamy oak add to the interest level, and this one, like the wine above, should be left alone for a few years even though it might serve very satisfactorily today.”
